Essay: The Jazz Age and Depression

America has gone from incredible highs to remarkable lows in its history. A classic example of this occurred during a span of twenty years called the Jazz Age and ended with the Great Depression. Please write an essay that describes these periods while also discussing the major events that took place and triggered said periods.

In a typed essay you will discuss the following:

I. Discuss and describe each of the periods we covered and include:

- A. Major changes in American society
- B. Major changes in people's lives
- C. Personalities/people of the era and their impact
- D. Ideas that fundamentally changed the nation
- E. Government reaction and policy shifts
- F. Time period
- G. A general overview (beginning, middle, and end 1/2-1 page)

II. Please choose which of the two periods had the most impact on America.

- A. Make sure you give at least 3 reasons supporting your stance.
